

and faithful servant." May these congratulatory sentiments extend to your how to appreciate progress, will join in the chorus - "he has been a good

A great galaxy of friends and admirers who have vision and who know completed a great work for his fellowman.

twelve o'clock tonight you will lay down your gavel as a hero who has ac-the capstone of administrative heads in the history of our fair city. At courageous will-power, your unselfish spirit and real leadership, make you ness and forethought. All of these, together with your broad faith and tract and entertain the best in America and Europe demonstrate your fair-tion of the city's work among all of the citizens and your ability to atattribution to your efforts toward progress. Your fine spirit in the distribu-

the transformation in and around the Fire Department, City Hall and Jail, tion centers, your "Greatest Board" talk on the Greatest Beach in the World,"

Your paved, lighted streets, your Beach Street parkage, your recreapassage of time. Children of tomorrow will rise up and call you blessed.

monument has been built in this city that can never be effaced by the

Through your wisdom, vision, courage and efficiency, an administrative geous administration, the congratulations you have so richly earned.

Beach, to extend to you, as the retiring head of your progressive, coura-

May I be permitted, on behalf of the colored citizens of Daytona

Greetings,

Daytona Beach, Florida.

of

His Honor, Mayor E. H. Armstrong,

December 31, 1929.

Daytona Beach, Florida

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

(Formerly the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute)

BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE

MARY McLEOD BETHUNE, President

F. J. NIXER, Treasurer

MNB:1

Mary McLeod Bethune.

Sincerely yours,

Mary McLeod Bethune

of cooperating with you in your great program of service, I am With gratitude for all that you have done, and for the privilege administrative force.

#2 - Mayor E. H. Armstrong -

December 31, 1929.

Daytona Beach, Florida

BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE
(Formerly the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute)
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT