

Ansonia Clock Company - Black Cast Iron Shelf Clock - (circa 1890s)

Ansonia Clock Company - Cast Iron Shelf Clock - (Circa 1890s)

Here is a heavy cast iron shelf clock with an 8-day time and strike movement.

The black cast iron case has engravings on the front of the case and measures 10-1/2" high x 9-1/2" (at the widest part of the base) x 4-3/4" deep (at the widest part of the base.) The original Ansonia 8-day movement has just had a complete servicing (cleaning and time adjustment) and is running excellent and keeping very accurate time.

The movement is marked Ansonia Clock Co., New York, Patented June 13, 1882.

The dial is marked Trade Mark A.
