E. Ingram Clock Company - American Eagle Motif on Glass - (Circa 1860s)

Here is an old brass 8-day shelf clock dating from the American Civil War period and it still has most of its inside paper intact.

The solid and veneer mahogany case features a round lower glass section with a painted American Eagle on a green background. It measures 15-3/4" high x 9-1/2" (at the widest part of the base) x 4-1/4" deep (at the widest part of the base.) The original E. Ingram 8-day movement is in fine working condition and gongs on the hour.

The dial has a white background with Roman numerals.
