

Gilbert - Mantle Clock Featuring an impressive swirling red, pink and white painted case – (circa 1880s)

Here is an eye-catching Gilbert Mantle Clock dating from the 1880s. It features a swirling painted design (red, pink and white colors) that were popular from the 1880s to the early 1900s. The case measures 11" high x 16-1/2" long x 7" wide. The dial is 6" in diameter. The original Gilbert 8-day movement has just had a complete servicing (cleaning and time adjustment) and is running excellent and keeping very accurate time.
